

- You can still vote!
- A map of the area where you live should be drawn in Section C of the registration form.
- You can register if you meet all of the following qualifications: (1) you're a U.S. citizen; (2) you've been or will be an Arkansas resident for at least 30 days prior to Election Day; (3) you'll be at least 18 years old on Election Day; (4) you're not a convicted felon who is still completing the terms of your sentencing; (5) you haven't been declared by a court to be mentally incompetent to vote; and (6) you're not registered in another county or state.

WHO CAN VOTE

Can I vote in Arkansas?

DON'T HAVE AN ADDRESS?

- Poll workers are required to request that voters present photo identification.
- This identification must:
  - Show the voter's name and photo;
  - Be issued by the United States, State of Arkansas, or accredited

RESTORATION OF VOTING RIGHTS FOR PERSONS WITH A FELONY CONVICTION

If you have been convicted of a felony you can have your voting rights restored!

- Under Arkansas law, if you have a felony conviction you may restore your right to vote by proving proof that:
  - You have served all time and supervision; and
  - Have paid all court costs, fees, fines, or restitution.
- Once proof that these conditions have been met is obtained (usually from ADC, DCC, or the court clerk's office), you will need to submit this proof to the voter registration department of the county clerk's office where you reside.
- You also will need to complete a voter registration form and submit it to your county clerk with proof of sentence satisfaction.

VOTER IDENTIFICATION

- The address associated with your voter registration does NOT have to match
- The address on your ID should NOT be a reason to deny your right to vote.
- The address on your ID should NOT include a copy of your ID with your absentee ballot.
- You must follow the same election clerk by noon the Monday after the election commissioners or your county take your ID to your county board of your ballot to be counted, you must a provisional ballot. In order for any identification, you can still cast

If you fail to or are unable to provide form of identification, anyone who is registered to vote your county clerk free of charge to of State's Office or the office of available through the Secretary of State's Office and does not have another valid voter verification cards are a photo of the cardholder, public assistance ID that shows ID, a voter verification card, or a military ID or employee badge from an accredited institution, a military permit, a U.S. Passport, a student card, a concealed carry handgun license, a photo identification requirements include a driver's license, a photo identification requirements that meet these years before the election, or have expired no more than 4 expiration date, it must be current

If the identification has an Arkansas; and postsecondary institution in the address on your ID. You will be required to state your address when you vote so remember or check your address used for registration.

First, ask a poll worker to check the list again and to confirm that you're at the right polling place. The poll worker should ask your address and date of birth and attempt to verify with your county clerk that you are a registered voter in the county and at that precinct.

If you're at the right polling place but your name isn't on the voter list and the poll worker cannot confirm your information, you can ask for a provisional ballot even if you're not on the voter list, as long as you're willing to swear that you believe you are registered to vote.

What if I'm not on the voter list? What if my name differs from the precinct voter registration list?

What if someone challenges my right to vote?

- Assert your right, but especially on Election Day (as opposed to early voting). If you cannot persuade poll workers to accept you as a voter, you can always ask for a provisional ballot that will be counted if the county board of elections late determines that you were eligible to vote.

What if someone tries to intimidate or harass me?

- Tell a poll worker right away. If the poll worker is the problem, tell the election judge, and also call your county clerk. Call the election hotline number listed at the end of this card, and/or make a complaint online at www.acluarkansas.org/get-help. You should also make a complaint with your county board of election commissioners and the Arkansas State Board of Elections. You can ask for the names of any poll worker. NOTE: A written complaint with the Arkansas State Board of Elections must be filed within thirty days of the date the election results are final.
- You can find the names and contact information for your county board of election commissioners at www.arkansas.gov/sbec/election-commissioner and information on making a complaint to the Arkansas State Board of Election can be found at www.arkansas.gov/sbec/election-information/complaints/.
