

RESTORATION OF VOTING RIGHTS FOR PERSONS WITH A FELONY CONVICTION

- Can I vote in Arkansas?
- You can register if you meet all of the following qualifications: (1) you're a U.S. citizen; (2) you've been or will be an Arkansas resident for at least 30 days prior to Election Day; (3) you'll be at least 18 years old on Election Day; (4) you're not a convicted felon who is still completing the terms of your sentence; (5) you haven't been declared by a court to be mentally incompetent to vote; and (6) you're not registered in another country or state.
- WHAT IF I'M HOMELESS AND DON'T HAVE AN ADDRESS?
- You can still vote!
- A map of the area where you live should be drawn in Section C of the registration form.

WHO CAN VOTE

- If you have been convicted of a felony you can have your voting rights restored!
- Under Arkansas law, if you have a felony conviction you may restore your right to vote by proving proof that:
 - You have served all time and supervision; and
 - Have paid all court costs, fees, fines, or restitution.
- Once proof that these conditions have been met is obtained (usually from ADC, DCC, or the court clerk's office), you will need to submit this proof to the voter registration department of the county clerk's office where you reside.
- You also will need to complete a voter registration form and submit it to your county clerk with proof of sentence satisfaction.
- Poll workers are required to request that voters present photo identification must:
 - Show the voter's name and photo;
 - Be issued by the United States, State of Arkansas, or accredited postsecondary institution in Arkansas; and
 - If the identification has an expiration date, it must be current or have expired no more than 4 years before the election.
- Documents that meet these requirements include a driver's license, a photo identification card, a concealed carry handgun permit, a US Passport, a student ID or employee badge from an accredited institution, a military ID, a voter verification card, or a public assistance ID that shows a photo of the cardholder.
