PROBLEMS AT THE POLLS

What if I’m not on the voter list?
You might think you’re at the right polling place, but your name isn’t on the voter list. You have to match the address on your ID to your voter registration list. If they’re not the same, you have to provide proof your address has changed or that your voter registration address needs to be corrected. If you fail to do so, you may be denied your right to vote.

What if my name differs from the voter registration list?
You’re willing to swear that you believe you’re the registered voter and this will satisfy the voter ID law. If you can’t persuade poll workers, you must file a provisional ballot and your name isn’t on the voter list.

What if my name on my ID differs from my voter registration?
You’re registered to vote in the county and at your address on your ID. You will be allowed to vote.

If you try to return with your ID, if you have any identification, you can still cast a provisional ballot. You have the right to cast a provisional ballot even if your identification has an independent (non-voter ID) reason to deny your right to vote. The provision for a provisional ballot is extended to voters who are registered to vote but your name isn’t on the voter list. You have to provide proof your address has changed or that your voter registration address needs to be corrected. If you fail to do so, you may be denied your right to vote. In order to be eligible to vote, you have to satisfy the voter ID law. If you can’t persuade poll workers, you must file a provisional ballot.

Satisfy the voter ID law.
